

LUCY CLOCK TOWER FACILITY SUMMARY

SNAPSHOT OF TODAY

| | |
|------------------|--|
| Building Address | 801 6th Avenue Tuscaloosa, AL 35401 |
| UA Property# | 089 |
| Year Constructed | 2010 |
| Year of Addition | |
| Last Renovation | |
| Gross | |
| Net | |
| Floors | |

SPACE BY ORGANIZATION

ASSIGNED SPACES

Net Assignable Sqft -

CAPITAL RENEWAL PLAN

LUCY CLOCK TOWER

Courtesy of UA Department of Photography

In 1956, Autherine Lucy was the first African American to attend classes at the University. Due to hostility and threats of the time, the board of trustees suspended Autherine after only two days. Despite the setback, Autherine earned her degree from the university 30yrs later. In 2010, the Lucy Clock Tower was erected to commemorate this historic event.